

Why Storage?

Critical Loads Backup

Wattsmart batteries will keep your most important electrical circuits going even when the power goes out. Your lights, a refrigerator, an AC unit, and a few other critical loads can all be backed up and kept running for hours.

Save Money

Did you know that the excess power you create through solar goes directly to Rocky Mountain Power and they only credit you back for some of that energy? By having a storage solution on your home, you keep all of that excess power in your battery saving you money every single day.

Rocky Mountain Power Incentives

Wattsmart incentives give up to $600 per kW depending on solar installation date. On top of that there is an annual credit of $10 per kW of storage that is installed.
